

Winter Driving

Activity developed at Cégep de Trois-Rivières

By ANNE BLOUIN

Based on a problem situation dealing with driving a car in winter, students divide into teams of 2 or 3 people to apply Newton's laws (force and motion) to winter driving.

This activity serves the dual purpose of reviewing Newton's laws, and relating them to preventive driving tips that students learned during their driver's education course.